subject: The Rosehill Relationship Committee

The Rosehill Relationship Committee

The committee met on January 6th at 15 Rutherford Place; five people were present, four of whom had served on the original, founding committee.

Among other things, we made a list of places where we might find the Friends House in Rosehill founding documents and intend to pursue them in order of what seemed to us the most accessible.

Those present made clear that a deep reservoir of dedication to and concern for Friends House and its mission still exists within New York Quarterly Meeting.
