

Clerk's Report from
Flushing Monthly Meeting of
New York Quarterly Meeting
For 15 January 2023

Flushing Monthly Meeting meets in person at Flushing Meeting House at 11 AM on Sundays with a zoom link for those unable to attend in person. Our Children's Meeting also meets via zoom at 11 AM on the first and second Sundays of the month, and the People of Color Worship Group meets at 10 AM on the first Sunday of the month.

There have been no changes in membership since the last Quarterly meeting. We have again participated in the Holly House Tour of notable Flushing landmarks. Attendance of the tour was not surprisingly up from last year as people recalibrate their lives in the wake of COVID. Regular worship is often gathered, as is Worship during Children's Meeting. The People of Color Worship group remains small, but there are regularly new faces. For several months now we have been blessed by some now quite regular new attenders.

We are sorry to report that our lead co-clerk Jeffrey Guyton will not be present at the meeting house for some time, as he has temporarily moved to Singapore, where he has gotten a teaching position. He will attend via Zoom when possible. During his absence co-clerk Caroline Lane is again clerking our meetings for worship with a concern for business, but we continue to struggle with deep divisions in the meeting, which is often apparent during meetings for business. We are grateful for Friends from the Quarter who have joined our meetings for worship with a concern for business to hold us in the Light,

Sincerely,

Caroline Lane
